

Booming coastal electronics repairer minus the techno wizardry

IF YOU'RE THINKING THAT TO OWN A SUCCESSFUL ELECTRONICS BUSINESS YOU NEED TO BE AN EXPERT ELECTRONICS TECHNICIAN, THINK AGAIN.

With this well-established business people skills and problem solving are the must-haves to continue a success story going back almost three decades.

SERVICING BOTH THE GENERAL PUBLIC AND ALMOST 90% OF RETAILERS ACROSS ITS BROAD OPERATIONAL AREA, THE BUSINESS REPAIRS AND UPGRADES A WIDE RANGE OF EQUIPMENT INCLUDING:

Plasma, LCD and Rear Projection Televisions, Video Projectors, DVD recorders, Home Theatre, CD, Audio Systems, Computers, Monitors, Printers, Scanners, Cameras, Video Projectors, Industry test equipment, Monitoring and Surveillance devices, Entertainment equipment and more

The business has minimal competition province wide – region wide, as an independent affiliate of Next Electronics, the leading national electronics service company, the business benefits from national service agreements with major manufacturers and the company's expansive marketing and advertising campaigns.

The store itself has an excellent location in the centre of a major regional town located on New Zealand's picturesque North Island's east coast. A LONG LEASE IS AVAILABLE ON THE SITE OR THE NEW OWNER HAS THE OPTION OF BUYING THE FREEHOLD IN ADDITION TO THE ASKING PRICE.

Excellent technical staff are already in place, meaning you don't need to have an electronics background yourself. With the convergence of consumer technology and a growing pool of international qualified technicians always expanding to boost the technical manpower, there are plenty of opportunities to grow the business even further.

Locally you'll enjoy the relaxed coastal lifestyle which regional New Zealand is renowned for. While set amid the rolling hills of a thriving rural community, the town offers a comprehensive range of modern amenities and conveniences. In addition to its superb coastline and generous climate, it's only 2 1/2 hours from the snowfields and the same distance to the hot springs of Rotorua.

ASKING PRICE: $485,000 WIWO • NZ North Island • Code: NZ18-19
