

Tyre franchise bringing big brand backing to Victoria's iconic Murray region

As part of the Bridgestone franchise group, this opportunity is based on a proven business model and has been strategically located to ensure sustainable profitability.

Operating now for ten years the business brings with it a well-developed commercial and retail client base generating a million dollar turnover.

Located in a town set on the banks of the renowned Murray River, it supplies a broad range of tyres to the general public as well as a large commercial clientele consisting of local truck and farming operators, and more.

The store and workshop are ideally positioned on a corner block with main road frontage, offering excellent accessibility and invaluable exposure to passing traffic. A long lease is available.

Being a franchise, you'll benefit from the Bridgestone groups awesome buying power and brand recognition, as well as having fantastic head office support and national marketing. Franchising is one of the best ways to commence your Australian business venture, with ample support to make sure you and your business achieve your financial goals.

Currently, the store is run under management meaning the new owner will have multiple options as to where they position themselves in the business. With training available through Bridgestone, becoming an owner/operator is one possibility, or alternatively, let the business run itself and enjoy its considerable income.

The Murray River is Australia's largest river and arguably its most renowned waterway. As well as being the lifeblood of an enormous agricultural industry, for residents the river provides a range of opportunities to unwind including canoeing, fishing and boating. The good size town has plenty of amenities and services such as great shopping, schools and health facilities and is only 1 ½ hours from Melbourne.
